

BRIEFING 005: Diver Code of Conduct

1. Divers will, at all times, abide by National guidelines and club guidance on safe diving practices.
2. Defined as a dive team, all divers must significantly contribute and support every other member during all club activities in the most suitable manner.
3. Members must actively participate in the management and organisation of the club.
4. Members must respect, and behave to, the limits of their qualifications and clearly identify these boundaries in open acceptance with other team members.
5. Members shall respect and abide by the club bye-laws and respect Committee decisions, implementing them with immediacy.
6. Divers shall, with the guidance and support of the club, continue to train and further their development and diving education throughout their membership, taking an active role in their personal diving development.
7. Members will show significant sensitivity and respect to the underwater world and surrounding environment.
8. Members will show maturity, cooperation and respect, as ambassadors for the sport of diving, towards all other third parties, and especially towards other divers.
9. Members shall not bring the club or any of its members into disrepute or sully the club's name/reputation.
10. Members shall settle outstanding expenditure and fees promptly and effectively.
